

Society Supported Research and Scholarship Awards

NILS WILLIAM AND DAGMAR OLSSON RESEARCH FUND

Established in 1969, the Olsson Research Fund provides modest grants to help defray expenses of original research in the field of Swedish-American history. Grant proposals should include a curriculum vitae, project description (2-4 pages) and itemized estimate of expenses. Letters of application, together with the required documents, should be sent to Philip J. Anderson, Chair, Awards and Grants Committee, Swedish-American Historical Society, 3225 W. Foster Ave., Box 48, Chicago, IL 60625-4895.

FRANKLIN D. SCOTT PRIZE

This is a $250 prize awarded for the best article by a writer previously unpublished in the Swedish-American Historical Quarterly. The prize is named for the late Franklin Scott, historian, former president of the Swedish-American Historical Society, and former editor of the Quarterly. Submissions should be sent in digital form to the Quarterly editor, Kevin Proescholdt, at kevin-jean@msn.com. All submissions should be double spaced, with footnotes numbered serially and placed at the end.

EMERGING SCHOLARS PRIZE

Established in 2010, the prize is open to currently enrolled undergraduate and graduate students interested in writing an article for the Quarterly. Every student who submits an entry that is accepted for publication will receive a one-year Society membership, with the best article winning a $250 prize. Submissions should be sent in digital form to the Quarterly editor, Kevin Proescholdt, at kevin-jean@msn.com.
